

Language Training

We have the perfect training for you

Are you starting a new job, or is your company perhaps taking over another organisation? Whatever your reason for learning a language, European Language Centre has the perfect training course for you.

How it works

Are you starting a new job, or is your company perhaps taking over another organisation? Whatever your reason for learning a language, European Language Centre has the perfect training course for you. In our programmes, your personal goals and learning style are the key focus. We also take into account your budget and availability. That's why we always start with a comprehensive intake. Do you already have some knowledge of the language and are you looking for quick results? If so, you can start right away with our Intensive Training. Our Tailor-made Language Training is an excellent alternative for all levels and all requirements. And European Language Centre's In-company Training is even more time-efficient for your employees, as they can take language classes at your workplace.

Some facts

- European Language Centre has been providing language training for professionals for more than 20 years. A personal approach, quality and flexibility are key elements – in everything that we do.
- European Language Centre organizes language training for all levels, every possible type of client and every profession.
- Door onze gedegen aanpak en ons oprechte streven naar kwaliteit zijn wij in staat om uw doelstellingen te bereiken. By means of a thorough approach and a genuine desire for quality, we are able to meet your requirements.
- U kunt op ieder gewenst moment met de training beginnen. You can start the training at any time.