

Costs

Our costs are also individually tailored

European Language Centre provides a tailor-made service, which means that you will also receive a tailor-made quotation from us. However, we understand that you will want to have a rough idea in advance of how much language training will cost. We have therefore provided a general guide price below.

Courses with a clear beginning and end

We understand that the training is a significant investment for you in terms of both costs and time. That's why we offer short-term courses with clear and achievable results, so that you get the return you expect on your investment.

Training	Cost in euro excluding VAT*	Note
